From the early 1990s to the early 2000s, Nickelodeon ruled the airwaves, capturing the hearts of a generation with its iconic lineup of shows, groundbreaking animation, and unforgettable characters.

Now, for the first time, the definitive oral history of Nickelodeon's Golden Age is available, as told by the stars, creators, and executives who shaped it.

In "An Oral History of Nickelodeon's Golden Age," readers will journey behind the scenes of their favorite shows, including "Hey Arnold!," "Rugrats," "Ren & Stimpy," "Doug," "Pete & Pete," and "The Amanda Show."

They'll hear from the talented voice actors who brought these characters to life, the creative visionaries who pushed the boundaries of animation, and the executives who steered the ship during one of the most successful periods in television history.

Packed with never-before-told stories, exclusive interviews, and behind-the-scenes photos, "An Oral History of Nickelodeon's Golden Age" is the ultimate companion for fans of the network that defined a generation.

“ "This is a must-read for anyone who grew up watching Nickelodeon in the 1990s and 2000s. It's a fascinating and nostalgic look back at a truly special time in television history." Entertainment Weekly”

“ "A treasure trove of behind-the-scenes stories and insights. This book is a must-have for any fan of Nickelodeon's Golden Age." Variety”
