In 2018, Greta began skipping school on Fridays to protest outside the Swedish Parliament. She held a sign that said, "School strike for climate." Greta's protest quickly gained attention, and soon, students all over the world were joining her. Together, they formed the Fridays for Future movement, which has become one of the largest youth-led climate movements in history.

Greta's activism has had a major impact on the world. She has spoken at the United Nations and met with world leaders to demand action on climate change. Greta has also been nominated for the Nobel Peace Prize. In 2019, she was named Time magazine's Person of the Year.

Greta Thunberg is an inspiration to us all. She shows us that even one person can make a difference. Greta's story is a reminder that we all have a responsibility to protect the planet. We must all do our part to fight climate change and create a better future for everyone.
