Episode 1: "An Unearthly Child"

In the first episode of Doctor Who, "An Unearthly Child," we meet the First Doctor (William Hartnell) and his companions, Susan Foreman (Carole Ann Ford), Ian Chesterton (William Russell), and Barbara Wright (Jacqueline Hill).

The Doctor is a mysterious old man who claims to be from another planet. He travels in a TARDIS, a time machine that looks like a police box. Susan is the Doctor's granddaughter, and Ian and Barbara are her teachers.

In "An Unearthly Child," the Doctor and his companions land in a junkyard in 1963 London. They soon encounter a group of cavemen, who are led by Za (Ray Brooks).

The Doctor and his companions must find a way to communicate with the cavemen and learn why they are in London. They must also find a way to return to the TARDIS and continue their travels.

Episode 2: "The Daleks"

In the second episode of Doctor Who, "The Daleks," the Doctor and his companions encounter the Daleks, a race of evil cyborgs from the planet Skaro.

The Daleks are led by their creator, Davros (Michael Wisher). Davros is a brilliant scientist who believes that the Daleks are the superior race. He wants to conquer the universe and exterminate all other life forms.

The Doctor and his companions must find a way to defeat the Daleks and stop Davros from carrying out his plans.

Episode 3: "The Edge of Destruction"

In the third episode of Doctor Who, "The Edge of Destruction," the Doctor and his companions are stranded on the planet Marinus.

Marinus is a dangerous planet, and the Doctor and his companions are soon caught in a war between two rival factions.

The Doctor and his companions must find a way to stop the war and escape from Marinus.

Episode 4: "Marco Polo"

In the fourth episode of Doctor Who, "Marco Polo," the Doctor and his companions travel to 13th century China.

The Doctor and his companions are soon caught up in a plot to assassinate the emperor of China.

The Doctor and his companions must find a way to stop the assassination and save the emperor.

Episode 5: "The Keys of Marinus"

In the fifth episode of Doctor Who, "The Keys of Marinus," the Doctor and his companions return to the planet Marinus.

The Doctor and his companions are searching for the Keys of Marinus, which are a set of powerful artifacts that can control the planet.

The Doctor and his companions must find the Keys of Marinus before they fall into the wrong hands.

Episode 6: "The Aztecs"

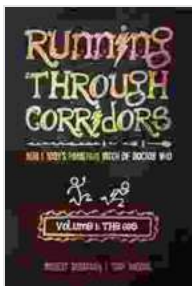

In the sixth episode of Doctor Who, "The Aztecs," the Doctor and his companions travel to 15th century Mexico.

The Doctor and his companions are soon caught up in a war between the Aztecs and the Spanish.

The Doctor and his companions must find a way to stop the war and save the Aztecs.

Episode 7: "The Sensorites"

In the seventh episode of Doctor Who, "The Sensorites," the Doctor and his companions travel to the planet Sens
